

P. Z. G. № 76 - 10.000.000 - 26.

1926: Post Card (Cp No. 43 I) with pre-printed 10gr violet stamp and imprint bottom left: P.Z.G. № 76 - 10.000.000 - 26. Sent 11.10.26 from Cracow to Freiburg (Switzerland) with extra 10gr plus 5gr stamps attached (both plate I).

P. Z. G. № 76 - 10.000.000 - 26.

1926: Post Card Cp. No. 43 I, but with differing positions of the dots in the Imprint. (Not listed in the Polish Specialist Catalogue).

Letter type also slightly smaller and heavier. Total length of Imprint 35 1/2 mm, but in top card 35 1/4 mm.

28 Feb. 1927: Remembrance of Fryderyk Chopin (1810-1849), the Composer. Design by Z.Kamiński. Printed type (on plates) by P.Z.G., Warsaw, on chalky paper in water-soluble ink.

40gr. deep ultramarine:
Chopin.

Perf. $11\frac{3}{4}$ x $11\frac{1}{2}$.

Shiny white gum.

Quantity: 3,059,000.

Valid until 30/4/1933.

Exists also imperforate.

Colour Variations:

40gr. ultramarine

40gr. pale ultramarine-blue.

Used:

40gr. ultramarine

40gr. bluish ultramarine.

10 March, 1927: 60th Birthday of Marshal Józef Piłsudski (1867 - 1935). Two stamps after a portrait by Koźniewski and printed type by P.Z.G., Warsaw, but first on cylinders and later on plates. Perf. $11\frac{1}{2}$ (25 gr), or $12\frac{1}{2}$ x 13 (both). Two types resulted from the different printing methods:

Type 1:
Cylinder prints.

20gr, carmine:
Piłsudski.
(Iss.10/3/27).

25gr, yellow-brown:
Piłsudski.
(Iss. 1/2/28).

Type 2:
Plate prints.

20gr, carmine:
Piłsudski.
(Iss. 1932).

25gr, yellow-brown:
Piłsudski.
(Iss.1932?). Valid until 30/4/33.

Quantities
(in total):
20gr 72,379,200;
25gr 29,860,000.

Commercial cover sent by Express mail from Warsaw to Cracow on 14.4.1927, using 20gr Piłsudski plus 50gr Eagle in Laurel Wreath of issue 1 May - 1 Oct., 1924.

10 March, 1927: 60th Birthday of Marshal Piłsudski, contd.

Cover sent from Katowice 29.4.1928 to Irvington, N.Y., U.S.A., arriving there 9 May 1928, but destination found incorrects at local P.O. Violet handstamps "Not for Irvington, N.Y."; "Advise correspondents or publishers of your correct address"; and "Forwarded".

Stamps used: pair of 25gr cylinder-printed Piłsudski's (Type 1).

3 May, 1927: First Anniversary of Prof. Ignacy Mościcki's Presidency. One stamp, printed typography by PZG, Warsaw, on white, thin smooth paper with yellow-white gum.

2-pane sheets of 10 x 10 stamps each.

Perf. $11\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$; also exists imperf.

Quantity: 10,000,000.
Valid until 30/4/1933.

20gr, vermilion:
Ignacy Mościcki
(1867-1946)
politician (1926-39), President of Poland, prominent chemical technologist, Prof.
at the Lwów Polytechnical Inst.

3 May, 1927: Fund for the State Schools. Two stamps designed by Z.Kamiński, and printed typography by PZG, Warsaw, with a coloured background pattern of wavy vertical lines. Thin white paper, or coarse white paper; gum yellow or clear. Comb perf. $11\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$.

10gr + 5gr:
purple/green.

20gr + 5gr:
indigo/straw.

Youth with a light and inscription "NA OSWIATE" ("For Enlightenment")

Quantities: 10 + 5gr 2,970,000; 20 + 5gr 2,950,000. Valid until 30.6.34.

27 May, 1927: 4th International Military Medical Congress, held in Warsaw 30.V - 4.VI, 1927. Printed PZG, Warsaw, in typography (25, 40gr), but the 10gr in lithography. White thin smooth paper. Comb perf. $11\frac{3}{4} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ (10 & 25gr) or frame perf. $12\frac{1}{2} \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ (40gr). Shiny white-yellow gum.

10gr grey-green:

25gr carmine:

40gr blue:

Portraits showing Dr. Karol Kaczkowski (1797 - 1867), Professor at the University of Warsaw, general, chief physician of the Polish armed forces in 1831. Portrait painted by Jan Haar (1795 - 1840).

Quantities: 10gr 1,540,000; 25gr 975,000; 40gr 1,019,918. These stamps exist imperforate, but this condition is very scarce.

Valid until 30.4.1933.

Registered cover with special postmark, sent 6.VI.27 from Warsaw to London (arrived 8 June 1927).

28 June, 1927: Transference of Juliusz Słowacki's Remains to Cracow. To honour Słowacki (1809 - 49), the poet and playwright who, together with Adam Mickiewicz and Zygmunt Krasiński, dominated the Romantic movement in Polish literature, his remains were re-interred in the Royal Burial Vaults in the Wawel Castle in Cracow (which is shared by non-royal Polish Greats).

Typography by PZG, Warsaw, on thin white paper. Shiny white-yellow gum.
Frameperf. $12\frac{1}{2}$ x $12\frac{3}{4}$. Sheets in panes of 10 x 5 stamps.

20gr claret:
Słowacki.

Quantity: 10,020,000. Exists imperf.(scarce). Valid until 30.4.1933.

Card of issue Nr. Ia (Imprint M.P.i T. (II-1928) 50.000.000) (with "-", not "." following "II"). Sent from P.O. Przemyslan-b to New York 27.IV.31. Unfortunately folded. Although meant for internal correspondence, an extra 15gr stamp added for use abroad.

Card of issue Nr. VII (Imprint M.P.i T. (VII-1930) 15.000.000). Sent from Lwów to Baden near Vienna, Austria. 2 x 5gr stamps of issue 1 Nov. 1930 added for sending outside Poland within Europe.

Pair of 15gr Sienkiewicz stamps used on what is probably one of the many post cards which were legally printed from 1922 to 1925 without pre-stamped values. Imprint bottom left W.R.K. Not listed in Polish Specialist Catalogue, but on p.210 (Vol. 1) a brief note about such post cards is given.

This card was sent from Ojców (near Cracow) on 18 VIII 1930 to Chicago, Ill., U.S.A. For overseas postage without air transport a total of 30gr was required.

Card of issue Nr.IV (Imprint M.P.i T. (IV-1930) 15.000.000. Sent from Dębica on 19.11.31 to Brooklyn, New York, U.S.A. 2 x 5gr stamps of issue 1 Now.1930 added for sending overseas. (Stamp under 25 March 1928)